

The Nova Scotia International Student Program (NSISP) brings students from around the world to public schools in Nova Scotia to learn our language and culture. Since 1997, NSISP has welcomed thousands of students and has grown to include over 800 host families in communities across the province.

Become a host family in the Halifax Regional School Board!

Hosting an international student means the opportunity to bring the world home.

- Students stay for periods of 3 to 10 months.
- Host families receive a tax free monthly stipend to help cover the cost of food and other expenses.
- Ongoing support is provided by an experienced Homestay Coordinator.
- Host families are asked to provide a private bedroom, 3 balanced meals a day and inclusion in family activities.
